

PREMIER DEVELOPMENT PARTNERS EXPANDS THEIR DEVELOPMENT SERVICES TEAM WITH NEW SVP

Brian Lenahan brings more than 20 years of commercial real estate experience to Premier Development Partners

CLEVELAND, April 10, 2017 - Premier Development Partners is pleased to announce that the company is continuing to grow and is welcoming a new member of the team, Brian Lenahan. Brian is a seasoned and well respected commercial real estate broker with 20 years of industry experience. Brian was most recently with Brown Gibbons Lang for the past three years, an investment banking firm in Cleveland, and prior to that he was with Ostendorf Morris / Colliers, now known as Howard Hanna Commercial, for approximately 15 years.

Brian began his career as an attorney, both in public and private practice. His law practice eventually led him to commercial real estate where Brian has excelled as a senior advisor to large national and regional clients in industrial commercial real estate.

Brian has been a top producing leader for multiple years and has been recognized for championing complex issues, developing relationships, and offering a solid deal-making acumen. With Brian's versatile amount of experience within the commercial real estate industry, his primary role will be to find development projects and acquisitions. He will also continue to provide development and brokerage services to his existing clients. His knowledge in making strategic contacts and growing businesses will be a strong asset for new opportunities for Premier Development.

"Brian has always provided top-notch service. He is dedicated to providing quality results on all projects he is involved in," said Premier Development's President, Spencer Piszczak. "We are enthusiastic regarding Brian joining the Premier family and we believe he is a natural fit for our team."

Brian serves on the Cleveland Bar Association on the Real Estate Committee, The Society of Industrial and Office Realtors (SIOR) as Past President of the Ohio Chapter, and has been a Featured Speaker of the Urban Land Institute (ULI). He also is involved with several alumni associations such as the Alumni Board for the John Felice Rome Center at Loyola University Chicago, the Cleveland Marshall Law Alumni Association in the Mentorship Program, as well as a Distinguished Alumni Committee Member for St. Ignatius High School.
